

Discover Alaska Your Way...

2018 BEAR SEASON IS OPEN

BOOK NOW FOR 2018 AND PAY AT 2017 PRICES (SPACE STILL AVAILABLE FOR 2017)

7 Day Great Alaskan Adventure Safari

7 days/6 nights from Anchorage round trip

Day 1: Anchorage

Arrive independently the previous day with pick up from your hotel at 7:30am to transfer to Riverside Main Lodge by Alaska's most scenic highway which crosses 2 mountain passes. After lunch a light plane transfer to remote safari style tented Bear Camp near Lake Clark and at the foot of spectacular snow capped Mt Iliamna. Enjoy a truly unique bear viewing experience with knowledgeable guides combined with gourmet meals served with fine wines overnighting in comfortable, high tech heated tent-cabins.

Kenai River Lodge

Day 2: Bear Camp to Riverside Main Lodge

Enjoy a morning's bear viewing in a true wilderness area from raised platforms or ground-level viewing stations and experience bears in their native environment. Following lunch a return flight to the main lodge with a happy hour and dinner.

Bear Camp

Day 3: Hiking from Riverside Lodge

Today a hike on one of the many amazing trails in the Chugach National Forest and Kenai National Wildlife Refuge. Choose from a moderate, mostly level and fairly short trail to the Russian River falls to view salmon leaping or a more aggressive hike and later a happy hour followed by dinner at the lodge.

Day 4: Kenai Fjords Cruise

A short drive to Seward during which a stop to walk to the face of a glacier close enough to nearly touch then the rest of the day cruising the incomparable Kenai Fjords NP in the protected waters of Resurrection and Aialik Bays looking out for calving glaciers, Humpback whales and Orca, charming Sea Otters and endangered Stellar Sea Lions returning to lodge at days end for a happy hour and dinner.

Day 5: Kenai River Scenic Float

Today a float on the tumbling aquamarine waters of the upper Kenai River as it rushes past rocks and forest through the Kenai Mountains towards its prodigious salmon spawning grounds. Look out for the returning salmon which bring bears, eagles and trout to feast on salmon and salmon eggs. Enjoy the gourmet picnic lunch returning in the late afternoon for the happy hour and dinner.

Day 6: A Day Trip to Homer & "Lands End"

A visit to Homer at the "End of the Road" to see early Russian churches, active volcanoes and mountain vistas and your first view of Homer and Kachemak Bay. Spend the day exploring this rustic artistic community at "Land's End", visit the famous sawdust floor tavern for wine tasting, call at local artist galleries, do some souvenir shopping and lunch on freshest fish at a local restaurant. Return to lodge for happy hour and dinner.

Day 7: Kayaking on Upper Kenai River

Today's adventure is kayaking on the Kenai River into the Kenai National Wildlife Refuge home to Moose, Eagle, Fox, Beaver, Brown and Black bear and even Lynx and Wolves with lunch at our camp on the edge of the refuge. Return to lodge at noon, check out at 2:00 and return to Anchorage via included commuter air from Kenai Airport.

Highlights:

Camp with the bears beneath snow capped mountains, cruise in Kenai Fjords National Park and go floating and kayaking on the upper Kenai River.

Departs 2017:

On selected dates between 1st June and 10th Sept.

Price per person 6 nights
Twin share from $5,995pp

Price includes: 6 nights accommodation, meals while at Lodge or camp, flights to Bear Camp, Kenai Fjords cruise and other activities as listed, arrival and departure transfers.
Exclusions: Pre and post accommodation, meals where not listed, gratuities.

2018 BEAR SEASON IS OPEN

BOOK NOW FOR 2018 AND PAY AT 2017 PRICES (SPACE STILL AVAILABLE FOR 2017)

Departs 2017:
Daily from end May to end August.

Price per person From

2 nights twin share $3,150pp

Price includes: 2 nights accommodation in safari style tents on full board with wine at dinner, return float plane flights to BearCamp and minivan transfers from/to Anchorage, travel documentation in PDF format.
Exclusions: Pre and post accommodation and meals in Anchorage, travel insurance, gratuities, hard copy travel documents.

3 Day Bear Viewing Tours to Katmai Peninsula

3 days/2 nights from Anchorage round trip

Day 1: Anchorage to BearCamp in Katmai NP

Arrive Anchorage independently the previous day with pick up from your hotel to transfer to their main riverside lodge near Soldatna on the Sterling Highway. After lunch a light plane transfer to the remote safari style camp near Lake Clark at the foot of spectacular snow capped Mt Iliamna. Enjoy a truly unique bear viewing afternoon with knowledgeable guides combined with gourmet meals served with fine wines overnighting in comfortable high tech heated tent-cabins behind an electrified perimeter fenced.

Day 2: Bear Camp in Katmai NP

After a hearty breakfast your guides will take you bear viewing from both raised platforms and ground-level viewing stations in a true wilderness area to experience bears in their native environment. Lunch and dinner are served at the camp followed by an evening fire on the beach under the stars.

Day 3: BearCamp to Anchorage

Enjoy another morning's bear viewing follow by lunch, a return flight to the main lodge and an onward minivan transfer to Anchorage where your tour ends on arrival.

Premier Cruise and Travel
Chatswood Central Shopping Centre, Springwood
07 – 3290 5355
office@premiercruiseandtravel.com.au